FHL to become owners of Government Printer

FHL has been in negotiations with the Government to acquire the assets of Government Printer in partnership with Aitken Spence after its successful bid in the tender process. Aitken Spence is one of the largest printing business in Sri Lanka and are the technical partners on this project.

The Group CEO; Mr Nouzab Fareed said the potential for printing business in Fiji is huge with investment in state of art printing technology delivering quality offset printing with much greater efficiency.

FHL believes the Pacific Island including Australia and New Zealand can be potential export markets for printing services with the provision of high end printing facilities.

FHL has signed a LOI with The Government of Fiji and paid deposit. More information will be made public after finalising the Asset Sale Agreement.
