Blue Lagoon Cruises (BLC) sells the Mystique Princess.

BLC is happy to announce the Sale of Mystique Princess to local company. The vessel was for sale since 2012.

Blue Lagoon Cruises is a subsidiary company of Fijian Holdings Limited (FHL). BLC have been the owners of the Mystique Princess since 1996.

The vessel has been out of operations for six years and is currently berthed at the Lautoka Harbor.

South Sea Cruises & Blue Lagoon Cruises CEO Brad Rutherford was quoted as saying “there had been good interest from both local and international buyers for the vessel”. He went onto say that “Mystique Princess had done a fantastic job while in service for Blue Lagoon Cruises over many years, allowing thousands of international visitors to cruise and experience the iconic Yasawa Islands and engage with the wonderful people of the region”.

Blue Lagoon Cruises in partnership with South Sea Cruises currently owns and operates the larger M.V Fiji Princess on 3, 4 and 7-night itineraries throughout the Mamanuca and Yasawa Islands.
