

Greetings from SPX!

This week we are providing important updates on the key stock market indicators including the latest share price movements and comparative stock market statistics from previous week. Furthermore, a summary of the financial performances for listed entities that have released their half year financial results is also provided.

Additionally, SPX continues its build up towards the 2019 Annual Awards and is making a final call to all interested stakeholders to purchase the event tickets at their earliest as limited seats are available.
